

A father gives you feather to fly. If you discover anything coming out of you, visit or go and stay under the auction of a mentor or father. While under that umbrella, you get security that nothing happens to you. Genesis 41:15-16. Your life should be on progress not stagnant. How you store Grace. You have to quote the God that did it before for you to do it now. storing Grace.