

NAME- EZE CHETACHI F

REG NUMBER- IMT/ESM/H2016/067

LEVEL- HND 1.

QUESTION NO 7.

RESEARCH TOPIC- RURAL DEVELOPMENT A MEANS OF COMBATING RURAL-URBAN MIGRATION IN NIGERIA..

DATE- 18/7/2017.

STATEMENT OF THE PROBLEM

Rural development is now a matter of crucial concern in most developed countries in general and Nigeria in particular. Indeed the problem is on how to ensure adequate development of the rural areas, to match the overgrowing migratory demand as well as achieving the motives and the development should be reasonable enough to justify their risks of not migrating. However, under rural areas and the continued migratory trend, this may be very difficult to accomplish. As a result of the developmental problem, it is very difficult to improve on the already create shortage or adequate rural development in Nigeria, the rural – urban drift has escalated house rent in the cities, the commutative effect of all those trends encountered low rate of rural development, lack of funds for carrying out these adversely affect the rate of rural development in Nigeria.

AIM OF THE STUDY

The aim of this study is to determine the effect of rural development on rural-urban migration

OBJECTIVES OF THE STUDY

The following are the objectives of the study

1. To identify measures put in place for rural development by government.
2. To find out the socio-economic causes of rural urban migration.
3. To determine whether rural development can serve as something that will solve all the problem for rural urban migration.
4. To determine the possible effect of rural urban migration on rural development.

RESEARCH QUESTION

1. What measures are put in place by government to develop the rural area?
2. What are the socio economic causes of rural urban migration?
3. What are the result of rural urban migration on rural development?
4. What is the best way we can put a lasting solution and improvement in rural development?