

Name :Ogbu Chukwuma John

Reg number : imt/esm/H2016/029

Questions number 3

A CRITICAL EXAMINATION OF LAND USE AND ALLOCATION PROCEDURE

STATEMENT OF THE PROBLEM

According to the land use act of 1978 all land belongs to the government,Therefore government is responsible for the use and allocation of land.

Wouldn't land be of value and interest when its evenly distributed and utilized properly, Am sure it will.

But in this case its not, Considering the previous research works done on land use and allocation procedure, That land is not evenly distributed and allocated properly. If this continues it would leas to land speculation and misuse of land.

Therefore the government with the help of and expert needs to see to it that land is utilized well and properly allocated.

AIM AND OBJECTIVES OF THE STUDY

To critically examine the land use and allocation procedures

- 1)To determine the various challenges faced in the use of land.
- 2)To examine the problems faced in the allocation procedures of land
- 3)To critically examine the method of solving the misuse of land and the fractured allocation procedures

RESEARCH QUESTIONS

- 1)What are the challenges faced in the use of land
- 2)What are the problems faced in the allocation procedures of land
- 3)What are the method of solving the misuse of land and the fractured allocation procedures