

- The major purpose for the use of the internet is to send/receive email and for education/learning activity.
- South East and North central utilizes the purpose of sending/receiving mail more than any other region in Nigeria while North West uses the internet for the purpose of education/learning more than the other regions in Nigeria.