

Ever since I turned 18years, I keep having imaginations of satisfying myself sexually with the fewguys that were hanging around as friends due to the fact I was into guys.

I have a best friend who was a boy but looked like a girl, I had in one way or another persuaded him to help relieve my sexual urges/ feelings for him but I was quite unfortunate each time i tried because he wasn't interested in a male- male relationship.

One day, I was fully convinced and determined to go and seek sex from him no matter how crazy it looks/ sounds. I visited him at home due to the fact his parents travelled, hoping to see him 'home alone' because he was the only child of the family.

To my dismay I didn't meet him at home but rather met a young lady, who seemed to be the maid lying naked on his bed. I was surprised as I felt a high sense of sexual urge I haven't felt, I never knew what came over me, I had to relieve my sexual feelings for the first time with a girl rather than for a boy; I had ever imagined for.
