

Source: NBS- Nigeria Malaria Indicator Survey Report 2016

Borno (Urban) has the highest number of people who are at risk to get malaria through mosquitoes in the north east followed by Gombe state in that region,

Also Gombe state rates the highest among those that stagnant water were the cause of malaria in the north east and Borno (urban) is the second highest in the region.

Borno and Gombe have the highest number of Adults who are most at risk to get malaria in north eastern region.